MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

25X1A

1. The subject is a contract agent who is now on terminal leave. He has in mind various claims against the Government most of which have been adequately explained to him as being without basis. However, there remains his contention that under the terms of his contract he is entitled to retroactive overtime payments. This problem was referred to the undersigned by [REDACTED] of FE/Personnel/Covert. See the attached memorandum of 7 January 1954 by [REDACTED] 25X1A 25X1A

2. A meeting was held 14 January 1954, there being present the subject, [REDACTED] of SO and the undersigned. It was explained to subject that since the terms of his contract did not provide for overtime prior to the amendment to that effect which was effective April 1, 1953, he was not entitled to overtime before that date despite the certifications which he presented over the signature of an FE-Administration officer setting forth that subject had performed certain overtime prior to April 1, 1953. Notwithstanding the foregoing, subject desired the services of a private attorney and he expressed his satisfaction with any cleared attorney that we would name. He was referred to [REDACTED] in the [REDACTED] I made it plain to subject and [REDACTED] that they were, of course, free to submit a claim to the Agency and that such would be given every consideration possible but that for security reasons they would not have available any outside channel such as the General Accounting Office or the Court of Claims.
